THE BORDEN DEFENSE

Riddles the Story of the Sisters' Quarrel in Jail.

Confusion of People About the House Atter the Murders.

Testimony of a Man Who Says He Locked the Cellar Door.

NEW REDFORD, Mass., June 16 .-House this morning at the resumption of the Borden trial than there has been at any time since the beginning of the trial, although the air is delightfully cool inside and fans have been retired. Among the early visitors was Miss Emma Borden, who is, it is understood, to be called by the defense although she was down as a Government witness.

Miss Lizzle told ex-Gov. Robinson as he greeted her this morning that she had and I passed a very restful night, and the inpassed a very restfut night, and the intimation came with a cheering smile that she would feel better by and by. was decided this morning not to

The Ducal Farty Goes to Yonker This Bfternoon.

The Duke de Veragua is spending much in the country in calling upon people who paid their respects to him on the occasion of his first visir to the city.

This morning the Duke, the Duchess and their daughter, Dona Maria, made an in-formal call on Archbishop Corrigan at the Archiepiscopal residence in Fitty-second street, and remained for more than an hour.

Archepiscopa remained for more than an hour.

At 2 o clock, the party leaves on a special car attached to a New York Central train, bound for Friar Cliff, near Yonkers, where they visited the stock farm of Walter W. Law, whose guests they will be for the remainder of the day.

They will dine at the home of Mr. Law, at Hill-Crest, and return to the city at 10 o'clock to-night.

The trip to Albany will probably be made next Monday. The city council at Albany voted the Duke is no sensible of the honor conferred on him that when some question was raised as to whether he would have time to go to the capital of the State he enthusiastically exclaimed: xclaimed:
"I will go to Albany if I have to go or
